

Registration procedure - compulsory elective subject

„Resilient Agriculture“

(language: English)

Wednesdays, 5pm – 7pm (Central European Time) starting from March 13th to June 26th 2024
(note: holidays, etc. tba)

! Start postponed to March 20th 2024!

1. Have a look to the information on the course:

- Course program (English) - <https://www.hsrottenburg.net/en/international/studierende-aus-dem-ausland/study-programmes/>. You find information on the content of the course, the utilization agreement of the e-learning platform, the registration and participation processes.

2. For questions please contact:

1. Objectives and content of the subject: poetsch@hs-rottenburg.de
2. Registration and administration: InternationalOffice@hs-rottenburg.de
3. Data protection: <https://www.hs-rottenburg.net/system/datenschutz/>

3. Register via your contact person at your home university:

Contact your local responsible person. The following dates...

- First name
- Last name
- E-Mail contact
- Home university, country
- Study programme at home university
- Level of studies (Master or Bachelor)
- ECTS needed

are requested.

4. Receive:

You will get the access directly from us to the learning platform for relevant learning material, necessary access data for the e-learning portal and the video conferencing system.

5. Join, feel comfortable, study and pass the course. If you have any questions please feel confident and contact us (InternationalOffice@hs-rottenburg.de).

6. If you need a certificate to proof your participation and success for your home university (ECTS, content, etc.) you will receive it from the International Office at University of Applied Forest Sciences in August 2024, if you have indicated this when registering. For any questions, please contact InternationalOffice@hs-rottenburg.de.